GAME 5 OF 6 • WORKS DAY OR NIGHT

Twenty Questions Cards

Classic yes-or-no guessing, with starter cards so the chooser is never stumped.

How to play

- One person thinks of something, then silently draws a card to check the category is fair.
- Everyone else asks yes-or-no questions: “Is it alive?” “Is it bigger than our van?”
- The group gets twenty questions total, then one guess. If nobody gets it, the chooser wins.
- Grandparents pick the hardest cards on purpose. Kids pick the silliest ones. Both strategies work.
- The judge rule: one neutral adult breaks ties on whether an answer counted as yes, no, or “sort of.”

Starter cards — cut out, pick one, think of something that fits

ANIMAL Something with feathers, fur, or scales. Bonus points if it could survive our trunk.	FOOD Something that could be served at a rest stop, for better or worse.	PLACE Someplace on this trip’s route or a place we’ve visited together.	THINGS ON WHEELS A vehicle of any kind. Every yes/no question it answers honestly.
IN OUR VAN Something actually sitting inside this vehicle right now.	MOVIE or SHOW Something every player has probably seen. Keep it fair.	WEATHER A kind of weather or season. Alert the driver if guesses get loud.	JOB Something people do for work. Choose from a job anyone here might find interesting.
FAMILY MEMORY Something from a trip or holiday we all remember.	MADE-UP A character or creature from a story someone here invented.	MYSTERY OBJECT Something found in a grandparent’s kitchen drawer.	HARD MODE Something that makes a sound. Guessers get twenty questions and one guess.

Question counters

Mark one box for each question asked. When all twenty are filled… one final guess, then the story of what it was.
